The statement was prepared on: 2020-12-01

This statement was prepared on the basis of a self-assessment carried out by the public entity.

Keyboard shortcuts

Standard browser keyboard shortcuts can be used on the website.

Feedback and contact details

Please contact us in case of any problems with accessibility of the website.

The contact person is Ilona Nenko, e-mail: ilona.nenko@uj.edu.pl. The same contact details can be used to submit applications and requests for additional information and accessibility.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

Everyone has the right to request that the digital accessibility of the website or any of their elements be made available. You can also request information to be made available in a different format, such as reading a digitally unavailable document, describing the content of the film without audio description, etc. The request should contain the personal contact information of the person submitting the request, an indication of which website or mobile application is meant and the method of contact. If the requesting person reports the need to receive information in an alternative form, he/she should also specify the form of this information.

The public entity should fulfill the request immediately and no later than within 7 days. If meeting this deadline is not possible, the public entity will immediately inform about when it will be possible to fulfill the request, and the deadline may not be longer than 2 months. If ensuring accessibility is not possible, the public entity may propose an alternative way of accessing the information.

Enforcement procedure

In the event that the entity refuses to comply with the request to ensure accessibility or provide alternative access to information, a complaint may be made against that entity.

After exhausting all possibilities, the complaint can also be sent to the Human Rights Defender: www.rpo.gov.pl.
